Village Club Card Room Nominated for 10news.com's A-List Award

Local card room goes head to head with large casinos to claim the title as "Best Casino in San Diego"

CHULA VISTA, CALIF. (July 11, 2011) – Poker, Blackjack and EZ Baccarat players across San Diego have nominated the Village Club Card Room for yet another award – 10news.com's A-List Award for "Best Casino." The Village Club, which offers Texas Hold'em, Pai Gow, Blackjack, Omaha, and EZ Baccarat, was also recently named a top ten finalist in Sign On San Diego's 2011 poll for "Best Local Casino." This is the second year in a row that the Village Club has been nominated in both polls for the "Best Casino" category.

Last year, the Village Club was the only card room to place among the top five Best Casinos named in 10news.com's A-List 2010. This year, there are nine other San Diego gambling facilities competing in the Best Casino category, including larger casinos like Barona Valley Ranch Resort & Casino, Harrah's Rincon Casino & Resort, and Valley View Casino.

"We're thrilled that the Village Club is being recognized in the race to become San Diego's Best Casino, even among larger casinos in the area," says Harvey Souza, owner of the Village Club. "We offer just as much gambling action for our players and all of their favorite card games: Texas Hold'em, Pai Gow, Omaha, Blackjack and EZ Baccarat."

Each year, 10news.com allows viewers to determine San Diego's A-List, the local's guide to the best places and companies in San Diego. The annual contest now includes 135 categories including "Best Local Casino." Voting opened for San Diegans on July 1st and will close on August 26th. Results for San Diego's A-List will be available in the Fall.
